Dear Mr. Curry,

Thank you for your letter of May 22 addressed to Mr. Colby.

I have not been ignoring it. I have been talking to various persons about it in the hope that we might shake something loose for you.

I have seen your first effort in The Weekly, and I hope that as time passes, there may be some way we can maneuver ourselves into being a source for you.

I see where Bill McAllister has a sort of a Virginia angle story in the main part of the Post recently. He was out here to visit us. Perhaps you would like to drop out sometime. I for one am old enough to remember who Bill Nye was and to have his comic history of the U.S. I hope you are a kinsman.
